About Black Philanthropy Month

Supported by its backbone organization, The Women Invested to Save Earth Fund, partners and generous sponsors, Black Philanthropy Month is a philanthropy celebration and a year-round social action initiative, featuring a global campaign every August to elevate African-descent giving in all its forms. Founded by Dr. Jackie Bouvier Copeland in 2011 to empower Black philanthropists and advance funding (donations and investments) to strengthen Black communities everywhere. Recognized by the United Nations and 30 other governmental bodies, BPM continues to grow, building on the 18 million people from 60 countries who have celebrated it from inception.
